

Summer Word Hunt

Instructions: Every sentence below contains a hidden word related to summer that you need to find. Reading the sentences and looking at the underlined word(s) will give you a hint about which word you are searching for. Here is an example:

Example: Yards smell so sweet it's almost like sugar. Dense leaves and flowers in bloom are getting fuller.

Answer: Garden (Yards smell so sweet it's almost like sugar. Dense leaves and flowers in bloom are getting fuller.)

1. This meal is so epic, nicely laid out. The blanket, the basket, the friends all about!
2. The days are too hot so out of the wrapper it pops. I clean the stick of its icy treat and then head back to the shops.
3. How can the bees work so hard and still happily hum? I'd die in this sticky weather, I'd be overcome.
4. Absorb each sunray that comes down on you, as you lay on a towel and look over sand and the blue.
5. The string in my hand allows this toy to rise, and the wind is so brisk it easily flies.
6. Forgotten thrills of the great outdoors and open sky, campfires, birdwatching and a place to keep dry.
7. Don't stay in the sun, you should protect your skin, trees furnish adequate shelter if not too thin.
8. People encourage us as we walk up the mountain, "Hi! Keep going, just two miles left", but who's counting?
9. Lying on the sand, the vista never lets me down, soaking up rays and turning a darker shade of brown.
10. What is the attraction that most people have to this season? The warmth and comfort they feel is a good enough reason.

Answer Key:

1. Picnic

This meal is so epic, nicely laid out. The blanket, the basket, the friends all about!

2. Popsicle

The days are too hot so out of the wrapper it pops. I clean the stick of its icy treat and then head back to the shops.

3. Humid

How can the bees work so hard and still happily hum? I'd die in this sticky weather, I'd be overcome.

4. Beach

Absorb each sunray that comes down on you, as you lay on a towel and look over sand and the blue.

5. Kite

The string in my hand allows this toy to rise, and the wind is so brisk it easily flies.

6. Tent

Forgotten ten thrills of the great outdoors and open sky, campfires, birdwatching and a place to keep dry.

7. Shade

Don't stay in the sun, you should protect your skin, trees furnish adequate shelter if not too thin.

8. Hike

People encourage us as we walk up the mountain, "Hi! Keep going, just two miles left", but who's counting?

9. Tan

Lying on the sand, the vista never lets me down, soaking up rays and turning a darker shade of brown.

10. Heat

What is the attraction that most people have to this season? The warmth and comfort they feel is a good enough reason.