

Avoid Making Mistakes

Instructions: Place words from the box into the spaces in the story below. Don't worry, there are no wrong answers, just fun answers. After you are done, read your story to the class or a classmate.

eating	laughing	humming
sleeping	farting	thinking singing	speaking	sneezing dancing	fidgeting	burping smiling	whispering	smoking crying	daydreaming	yawning reading	breathing	blinking

When I am in class, I always avoid _____. This is because I am such a good student. I am also very popular in class. I have (0-99) friends who always avoid _____ around me. Our teacher is amazing, but I have the feeling that they want to avoid _____, so that they are accepted by the students. Sometimes I have to speak in front of the class. It is important when you are speaking English to avoid _____, so that others can understand you. I only have one rule in life. Avoid _____. If you can stop doing that, you can do anything.