

Springtime Word Hunt

Instructions: Every sentence below contains a hidden springtime word that you need to find. Reading the sentences and looking at the underlined word(s) will give you a hint about which word you are searching for. Here is an example:

Example: Spring tries to heal, I've not been dead, just asleep too long I feel.

Answer: alive (Spring tries to heal, I've not been dead, just asleep too long I feel.)

1. I am sure you wouldn't disagree; no colour has ever fit so naturally.
2. Awaken us now, one and all, the crisp ringing out of wonderful bird call.
3. We grab bits of candy, chocolate and eggs as an Easter symbol is up on hind legs.
4. A leg gets through, a bird loose to roam, free to leave its first ever home.
5. Rivers fill, rise and flow eroding the banks where these might grow.
6. This can be extra intense as falling droplets allow Spring to commence.
7. The season brings for established woodsmen wildlife to hunt in a wooded glen.
8. Left alone startled by the cold, the chicks' mother returns home and tucks them under a fold.
9. Feeling a wormy throb in the ground a feathery friend is always the first around.
10. Bring your rain hat! Change into rain boots! Newborn birds and tiny plant shoots!

Answer Key:

1. Green

I am sure you wouldn't disagree; no colour has ever fit so naturally.

2. Spring

Awaken us now, one and all, the crisp ringing out of wonderful bird call.

3. Rabbit

We grab bits of candy, chocolate and eggs as an Easter symbol is up on hind legs.

4. Egg

A leg gets through, a bird loose to roam, free to leave its first ever home.

5. Flower

Rivers fill, rise and flow eroding the banks where these might grow.

6. Rain

This can be extra intense as falling droplets allow Spring to commence.

7. Forest

The season brings for established woodsmen wildlife to hunt in a wooded glen.

8. Nest

Left alone ne startled by the cold, the chicks' mother returns home and tucks them under a fold.

9. Robin

Feeling a wormy throb in the ground a feathery friend is always the first around.

10. Hatch

Bring your rain hat! Change into rain boots! Newborn birds and tiny plant shoots!